MAYOR'S NOTE

Another summer season is upon us and the outdoors beckon. Sackville has much to offer with peaceful landscapes, natural beauty, and extraordinary wildlife. This is the 30th year of our Waterfowl Park, which combines all those features. The park is linked to urban trails that offer unique local architecture, an array of dining choices, the campus of Mount Allison University, and tributes to George Stanley – designer of Canada's flag. Our summer 2018 brochure provides an overview of the even larger array of attractions and events hidden within this new kind of small town.

All Town of Sackville events, programs, parks, and facilities are SMOKE FREE.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

It's never been easier to register! Simply visit www.sackville.com and click on the summer programming link on the homepage.

To register for programs that require payment, you also have the option to visit Sackville Town Hall, 31C Main Street.

For details and information about any of our programs or events, contact the Department of Recreation Programs and Events at 364-4930 or visit www.sackville.com.

Like us at www.facebook.com/sackvilleNB, or follow us on Twitter @SackvilleTownNB and Instagram @SackvilleNB.

All programs are FREE unless otherwise specified.

Programs run July 3rd - August 27th, 2018

Kids CAMPS

GIRL EMPOWERMENT CAMP

This program is for girls who want to learn about themselves and how to make a difference in the world. During this five-day collaborative exploration, participants will inquire into self-image, self-confidence, and their ability to make a difference – in their own lives and the lives of others. Girls will gain a broader perspective about their health systems, cultural influences, entrepreneurship, and how to build a brighter future for girls all over the world. They will also build self-esteem, learn self-help strategies, grow positive body image, achieve goals, and much more!

A highly interactive and experiential learning journey, this unique program encourages girls to explore and express their own authentic selves, their capacities, and the pride of being a girl becoming a woman through the power of creative self-expression and engaging in community leadership.

C.I.T PROGRAM

Do you want leadership experience, enjoy playing with kids, looking to practice your interview skills and something to boost your resume? Then this program is for you! Whether you're a dance expert, a basketball pro, or just looking to have some fun with young kids, we need your help! We're looking for counselors in training, affectionately dubbed CIT's, to help us out with our kid's programs and camps this summer. This year you will also have the opportunity to work at some of the Sackville Public Library programs. Once you sign up to be a CIT you can choose what you want to do: come to Beech Hill Park for the week and make shelters in the woods during our camps, help run games for preschool aged children, or pick from any of our kid's programs or camps! Do a good job and at the end of the summer you will receive a pizza party, certificate and our program staff would be more than happy to be references for future job applications!

Registration is required. Contact sackville.megan@gmail.com for more information.

A mandatory information session will be held on Thursday, June 28 at 6pm in the Bill Johnstone Memorial Activity Centre.

WHERE: BILL JOHNSTONE ACTIVITY CENTRE AGES: 12-16

JULY 5 JUNIOR JILLS

The Junior Jills consist of 5 fiddlers and 1 piano player, ranging in age from 12-16. Going into their 4th year of performing as a group, they have performed at various local fundraisers, Sackville Fall Fair, and the Super Fiddle Show in Riverview NB, where they received a standing ovation for their performance. They perform primarily Canadian Old Time Fiddle Music, remaining true to their down east roots, while also making sure that their crowd is well entertained by the familiar tunes we have all come to love. They will be releasing their first recording in the summer of 2018.

JULY 13 SACKVILLE STRUMMERS

The Sackville Strummers is made up of individuals from the community that wanted to pick up their ukuleles and jam with other people. The group came together about two years ago and they have been strumming ever since. If you would like to join the Strummers, they meet every Friday from 1:30-3pm at the Bill Johnstone Activity Centre.

JULY 19 DEL WHEATON & FRIENDS

JULY 26 BILL DRYSDALE

Bill considers himself a self-taught musician of roughly 45 years with a wonderful love of Country and Gospel music. Bill has written several of his own songs and has had one CD released to date, with another one possibly on the way this summer.

AUGUST 2 ELASTIC BIG BAND

The Elastic Big Band is a nineteen-piece jazz band centered in Parrsboro, Nova Scotia. The band consists of professional and casual players from Halifax, Truro, Amherst, Springhill, Parrsboro and Sackville, NB. The band plays music from the Big Band era as well as some more contemporary dance tunes for community events and dances in Parrsboro, Sackville and Amherst.

AUGUST 9 SACKVILLE CITIZENS BAND

The Sackville Citizens Band, founded in 1902, has been a mainstay of the community music scene for 116 of the 151 years since confederation. Throughout all those years, including the turmoil of the war years, there has never been an interruption of service to the community. The band plays a wide range of musical styles and will certainly connect in some way with every member of an audience.

AUGUST 16 LISE BLAKNEY

You can find Lise singing at the Drew Nursing Home, here in Sackville, every second Friday afternoon. She also sings every Thursday evening at the Open Mic and on occasion at Duncan's Pub in Amherst, NS.

AUGUST 23 HEATHER STONE & MARGARET FILLMORE

Mother daughter duo, Margaret Fillmore and Heather Stone have been singing together for many years. They enjoy having different musicians from the community join in for backup music and singing. Together they have released three CD's. Classic Country is their favorite music to play and sing.

AUGUST 30 BUS 41

In the winter of 2017, a group of three guys; Larry Landry, Acquila Bourgeois and Bob Nelson; started meeting once a week in the basement for a "jam session". A few months later they decided to take their act above ground and now appear at the occasional "open mic event". Their goal: Play music, sing and have fun.
