SELF-GUIDED NATURE WALKS

Celebrate Sackville's Winterfest with Nature NB and learn about local winter wildlife in our parks! Throughout Winterfest, Nature NB is offering self-guided nature walks in Beech Hill Park and the Waterfowl Park. Get out for a walk or snowshoe and keep your eye out for temporary signage along trails with fun facts about different species you may encounter on your winter stroll!

2020 PHOTO & SNOWMAN CONTEST WINNERS

SACKVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY CELEBRATES WINTERFEST

What would Winterfest be without the Sackville Library? Although they cannot offer indoor programming at this time, there are still several ways the Library will be taking part. You can drop into Bill Johnstone Memorial Park anytime during the weekend and enjoy a Story Walk featuring "The Snow Knows" by regional author, Jennifer McGrath, or bring your camera and pose for a family picture in the photo booth in front of the Library. You can also stop by the Library and pick up your Winterfest Activity Kit or win a prize playing Wintertime Bingo. For more details or hours of operation, call 364-4915.

YOU ARE HERE: ONLINE EXHIBITION

Seeing Sackville through the Owens Art Gallery Collection: An Alternate Guide to Sackville, New Brunswick. You can find the full exhibit at youareheresackvillenb.ca.
