A Poem from our new Poet Laureate, Laura K. Watson

Small Consolations for Being Haunted by an Unrelenting Ghost

Who forgot to drop the keys into my purse thereby locking me out of the house to spend a night on my sister-in-law's couch before calling a locksmith in the morning?

That one was cruel.

Who dog-eared the pages of this book for me marking all of my favourite poems like forgotten tins of Christmas cookies
uncovered from the freezer?
Who saved these for me to savour?

Welcome to the 18th Season of the Sackville Festival of Early Music!

The SFEM Team is excited to present this year's festival. We will offer Live in-person Concerts as well as home-streaming options.

This year's festival will feature inspiring performances curated especially for our 18th season. New to SFEM audiences, Ensemble Anima will present Navré de ton dart (Friday, Sept 23) featuring the texts of trans poet Luke Hathaway. A SFEM favourite, Les Boréades de Montréal, will celebrate the ensemble's 40th anniversary with A Tribute to Molière and the French Sense of Humour, featuring celebrated New Brunswick baritone Dion Mazerolle (Saturday, Sept 24). Celebrations will continue (Sunday, Sept. 25) with the Music Department's new harpsichord— a gift from Joanna Manning, and her late husband Gary, in thanks for the many years of music enjoyed at Mount Allison. The concert features a Flemish Double harpsichord in the programme Quill and Bow featuring internationally acclaimed artists Mélisande McNabney, harpsichord and Elinor Frey, cello.

An Update from the Rotary Club of Sackville

The Rotary Club of Sackville was established in 1931 and, ever since, it has been putting into practice the Rotary motto of "Service Above Self". In addition to providing volunteer service in the community, the club raises funds to support community organizations, projects, and initiatives.

Rotary Club of Sackville
GOLD MINE

The first Rotary project was the creation of a "Community Playground" in a marshy area in 1932 which much later became the Bill Johnstone Park. Another major project, started in the 70's, culminated in the opening of the Lillas Fawcett Park at Silver Lake in 1981. The club has partnered with the Town on other projects in more recent years, including the rebuilding of the Booster Pump building (2017), the construction of a new lookout tower in the Waterfowl Park (2017), the construction of the Rotary Bridge (2019) which joined the Lund property to the Waterfowl Park, and the installation of a hydration station (2021) in Bill Johnstone Park.

Among the many community projects and organizations that have benefited recently from Rotary support are the Sackville Memorial Hospital, the Tantramar Heritage Trust, EOS Eco-Energy's Food Forest, Nursing Homes Without Walls, Food For Thought, Dictionaries for elementary school students, Autumn House, the PEDVAC Lunch program, TRHS Scholarships, CHMA, Community Forest International, Festival By The Marsh, Sackville Artists Fair, and Children's Books for the Food Bank.

Since its inception in 2015, the primary source of Rotary's fund-raising has been the Rotary Gold Mine. In the intervening 7+ years, it has raised over $780,000 with half of that having gone to the winners and the other half to fund community projects and initiatives. If you are interested in finding out more about (or joining) Rotary, e-mail: RotaryClubOfSackville@gmail.com. If you are interested in supporting Rotary's efforts through the Gold Mine, check out www.SackvilleRotaryGoldMine.ca/.

Open Auditions for "Foundries of Sackville NB: The People" by Susan Amos

Live Bait will be having open auditions for a community play celebrating the 150th anniversary of the founding of the Enterprise Foundry and other foundries in Sackville. Everyone who is cast will receive a small honorarium, and the play will be performed in mid-November.

When: Tuesday, September 13th from 6:00 to 8:00 pm.

To audition: Please contact Live Bait at livebaittheatre@gmail.com for more information or to book an audition time.

About the play: This play tells a little about some of the people whose lives were connected to one (or more) of Sackville's foundries. All the people depicted in the play with the exception of one are/were real. The play was written in 2022 as part of the anniversary celebration for two of Sackville's foundries (170th anniversary of Fawcett's Foundry and 150th anniversary of Enterprise Foundry). The play has three acts, one for each of Sackville's three foundries. The vignettes about the people unfold in chronological order. In the final scene, eight people who worked in the foundries share some of their stories about life at the foundries.
