A Poem from our Poet Laureate

Small Desecration on this Ugly Street

I thought we had an understanding.
The sunflower that inexplicably took root in the smallest crack in the sidewalk on King street, the one we watched grow over the summer, wondering if it could really be what we thought it was, if those leaves really denoted a domesticated, annual species, traveller from somebody's garden by mysterious means,
until it bloomed,
slowly opening itself up to us, this bright, solar centre of gravity unwrapped like a present, having decided,
despite the road's proximity
that we could be trusted,
us,
the community,
us—

I thought we had an understanding not to touch.

Live Bait Theatre presents “Jingle Bell of the Ball”

Live Bait Theatre is pleased to present “Jingle Bell of the Ball” for one night only on Saturday, November 25 at 7:30 pm at the Sackville Legion. For centuries, we’ve only known her as Santa’s humble wife. But now it’s time for Mrs. Claus to tell her story!

Ruby Claus has always been the true backbone of the North Pole, but she’s tired of being the unsung hero of the holidays. This year, she’s letting Santa and the elves fend for themselves as she steps into the spotlight in a glamorous night of music and comedy starring the true Queen of Christmas: Mrs. Claus! Recommended for audiences of 13-years-old and up. Tickets: Are available here or by calling (506) 536-2248.

Created by and starring CJ Norris. CJ’s previous work won him the Fan Favourite Award at the 2021 Fundy Fringe, for his solo drag musical Flyin’ Solo! CJ is a Moncton-based musical theatre artist who’s appeared on local stages as LeFou in Beauty and the Beast, Jinx in Forever Plaid, and the ensembles of Mary Poppins and The Wizard of Oz, just to name a few. This holiday season, he brings you another one-of-a-kind interactive ‘dragsical’!

Autumn at the Drew

A difficult three years are behind us, and the Drew is once again able to focus on positive initiatives. They are welcoming back volunteers, who were so missed during the pandemic. Please call 506-3649-4900 if you would like more information about volunteer opportunities at the Drew.

The Home is planning special events and activities for the fall and winter, to engage and entertain residents and their families. Visit the Calendar page on their website to see what activities are coming up.

As we head into cold and flu season, residents will soon be receiving vaccines for influenza and COVID-19. Staff, families, and friends are also encouraged to get vaccinated.

Like many other organizations, Recruitment and Retention are a major focus at the Drew. They await up to 20 new staff members from the Philippines this fall/winter. The additional staff complement will enable them to welcome and care for more new residents. Although they are offering temporary housing for these newcomers, they will soon be looking for more permanent housing. The Drew is working with ThriveNB to assist with settlement plans. If community partners are interested in helping out with housing, used furniture, or even used winter clothing, feel free to call 506-364-4900.

The Drew would also like to thank the community for the donations received during Roses Independent Campaign in June. A total of $1,780 was raised, which is greatly appreciated. They also received a donation of $6,000 from the Sackville Hospital Auxiliary, funds that will also be used to benefit our residents.

It was a wonderful Fall Fair this year! The Drew was happy to participate in the parade, and many residents enjoyed watching the festivities, while others enjoyed being on the Drew float and trishaw bike. The theme was “Fall in Love.” Erma and Sonny enjoyed being in the parade as a couple “Just Married 76 years ago.”

The Sackville Hospital Auxiliary Gift Shop invites you to Moonlight Madness
